A couple of vacancies have occurred since my last report, including the County Administrator’s Office with the Administrative Assistant’s position; County Clerk’s Office with a Deputy Clerk, and the Sheriff’s Department with a Corrections Officer.

Sheriff’s Department

Last week, the Sheriff, Undersheriff, and I met with the law firm of Prince & Monton to discuss developing a land purchase agreement for a parcel of land related to the proposed new jail and Sheriff’s Offices project. Any such purchase is contingent upon voter approval of a proposed new additional millage and the availability of adjacent land currently owned by the city of Hart.
